

How Would You Like Me To Personally Help You Double Your Business This Year? For FREE!

A sincere letter from Elvis Caron.

Hello my friend,

I hope you're the person I'm looking for. I'm trying to locate a client that is an absolute dream to work with. Someone that I can literally bring in boat loads of cash with and we can laugh our way to the bank together.

And if you're that kind of client, I want to personally devote 1-on-1 help and time to work side by side with you developing your business, increasing revenues and doubling, or even quadrupling your sales over the next 12 months.

I'M NOT Asking You For A Dime!

Here's how this works:

1st, I am going to help you create a strategy for getting you more money in your business IMMEDIATELY. Not next month or next week, right now, immediately. Let's set a time to talk on the phone for about 20+ minutes.

We'll come up with some things you can do right now that you're not doing currently to get more business, or something you didn't know was right under your nose that can be implemented immediately for immediate results.

No crap. And there's absolutely no charge for my initial consulting call with you and no strings attached. It should only take us 20-40 min together to figure out what to do, and I don't need your credit card number or nothing sketchy like that.

I've been asking Business Owners, CEO's, Marketing Directors, Sales Managers, Start Up's and Veteran Entrepreneurs what has worked for them and what has not for 17+ years now and I'm getting pretty darn good at cross pollinating ideas from one business or industry to the next, finding easy to implement changes in an advertisement that lead to increases in lead generation, sales conversions, customer frequency and lifetime value of your clients.

And I started out doing Graphic Design, Advertising Sales, Direct Mail / Print Campaigns, Web Design, Illustration, Video Production, Copywriting, Storyboarding and Traffic Generation. I've had my hands in EVERY working piece of this industry for a loooooong time, and I got some slick tricks up my sleeve to help you.

I even think it's best if I do all of the hard stuff like telling you what to send, to whom, what to offer them and most importantly what to do if they DON'T buy from you in order to get more sales and make more moolah from ALL of your advertising efforts.

When we're done with our 1st strategy session you'll have 2 options.

ONE: You now have a super awesome plan that you can implement on your own and get clients with. If that's the case please tell me about your success, I love hearing about it and I totally understand if you'd like to try to do it yourself. No hard feelings here.

TWO: You and I start executing immediately and start getting you immediate results in your business, right away!

I seriously mean this from the bottom of my heart, this is the real thing, and there is absolutely no catch.

Just think for a second, the only bad thing that could happen is that you walk away with a bunch of ideas that you can implement into your business immediately and start getting more leads, more sales and higher profits.

On the other hand, what might happen is you and I could start working together personally to blow up your business and increase your sales in all sorts of easy to implement ways, over and over again until our cups are overflowing.

And I don't mean stupid stuff like discounting your prices either. Actually more the opposite.

This Is The Closest Thing To A Shortcut To More Sales, More Profits and More Money You'll Ever Have A Chance To Take Again.

Having me on your team as a consultant is like LEVERAGE.

Since I KNOW what I could possibly do for your business (if you are a DO'ER), I'm willing to put my best foot forward for you and get you the results you want up front before you ever pay me a penny...

1. We'll spend some time on the phone so we can discuss your business.(20-40 min)
2. Together, we'll immediately come up with a few easy to implement ways to increase your sales and/or profits. And you don't even have to pay me for it.

There's a bunch of ways I can do this, here's just a few.

- I might cross pollinate ideas I've used in other industries and structure them around your business and philosophy.
- I could end up creating a good reason to for your clients to buy from you more often.
- I might help you land higher paying customers, or just help you find markets that are underserved that you haven't realized yet and they're just waiting for you to offer them your solution.
- And much more, all in our 1st free session together..

Why Would I Do This?

For one main reason, this is MY passion. I can't ever get enough of watching other people's financial lives change for the better, or free up time so you can have a more fulfilling lifestyle and not just a business. I know you'll get out a lot out of our friendship because I actually care.

I know you're still probably thinking, "What's The Catch?" right?...well... I seriously mean it when I say there's no catch. People have paid a great deal of money to me to consult with them on their advertising in the tens of thousands of dollars and some have gone on to make hundreds of thousands and even millions of dollars, why would you not take me up on an offer to get a shortcut to your success, up front, for free?

The only catch is that this is how I find the best clients for me to work with.

There's no limit to the kinds of business owners I'll help, I've worked with damn near every type of industry there is. It doesn't matter if you're selling physical products in a store front or a website or both, if you sell door to door, or if you do a service like accounting, roofing, web/graphic design, if you're a physician, a taxi cab owner, an event promoter or any and anything under the sun.

And if you're worried about what it might cost you to work with me after our 1st free session, nothing, nada, zero, zilch...WHY! Because I plan on making you a lot more money than you're making now, making whatever you and I feel comfortable with not really costing you anything, only making you money.

And every size business is welcome to apply for a session with me. From start ups on up. It's not about what my fees for consulting might be if we continue to do business together, it's more about who you the business owner are and what you're willing to do and try in order to revolutionize your business and bulletproof your financial and/or time freedoms.

"I don't want any of your money, unless I make you more than you're making without me"

Is it you?

If you're excited about what kind of results I get for you up front, its easy for me to assume that you'll want to crank out one money making idea after another this year with me and you can invest in my consulting and/or work on a performance contract with me going forward.

The consulting session call is totally free even if you take the ideas and run with them, no hard feelings I'm just glad I could help you.

But that's not here or there right now, let's just schedule an appointment and see what we can work up together to put some money in your pocket, right now, immediately, and make 2014 the best year ever for you.

There are however a few types of businesses I WON'T be able to help.

- 1. Make Money / Get Rich Quick stuff. Sorry, but I don't believe you and neither does anyone else, hard work and determination are the cornerstones of making any money worth talking about. Nothing immoral, or hateful. (nuff said)
- 2. Affiliates selling someone else's stuff. Unless you have a completely different approach to your affiliate product or service or sell a product or service of your own I can't really help you much.
- 3. Or if you really weird me out.. just kidding.. sort of.

If any of that is you, lets still be friends I'm sure the time might come where we might be able to work together in the future.

But if you do think we could work together, here's what I ask of you:

- 1. You have to have a REAL business already. You've gotta already have a working business and be making some sort of sales already for me to help you. At least a real product or service to sell.
- 2. You need to already be advertising or have a budget to work with.
- 3. You MUST have a list of either past customers or opted in list of leads asking for more information about your services or products. Or if you don't have a list be willing to buy a list or create a list.
- 4. Probably the most important thing is that you absolutely MUST have a good product or service already. I can't help you sell gold plated poop. Not that somebody wouldn't buy it, I just don't wanna sell it.

If you work well with my criteria here's what I want you to do next. Contact ElvisCaron@gmail.com and put "Consulting Session" in the subject line and put your contact information and the best time to call in your email and I will contact you to set a time for us to talk as soon as possible. Set your free session. I promise you'll be glad you did.
